on the lower Cape in Truro from oil clearly illustrates that there is a chance of losing a water source. He said that some wells could be lost for a long period (30 to 40 years). Water Superintendent William Nicholson stated that the water supply is such a vital source that protection must be undertaken.

The proposed district is defined in the draft outlining the river valley roughly following the boundary of the Fairhaven line along the Mattapoisett-Fairhaven and Mattapoisett-Acushnet town lines (north), then (east) along the Mattapoisett-Rochester town line; then (south) along the westerly line of North Street to Crystal Springs Road to Acushnet Road; continuing south along the westerly sides of Acushnet Road, Harvey Orchard Lane to Tallman Street; (westerly) parallel to Route 6 at the rear boundary of the business district.

The by-law would permit family residences and associated accessory structures provided that the lot contained not less than 40,000 square feet. The exception to this size would be residence connected to a municipal

We're pleased to announce that CHARLES PREFONTAINE, R. Ph. has purchased Seaport Pharmacy.

Charles Prefontaine has been a resident of Mattapoisett for seven years and has worked at the pharmacy for eight years, seven of them as manager.

He is a graduate of Holy Family High School in New Bedford and the University of Rhode Island, College of Pharmacy. He is a trained professional who has made a lifetime commitment to the health needs of his customers, with firm belief that Seaport Pharmacy will always give you the best value for your medication dollar.

Charles is always available and eager to answer questions about your prescription and non-prescription medications and other health needs.

Seaport Pharmacy is a unique blend of value and convenience. While you are filling your prescription you can relax at an old-fashioned Soda Fountain that serves over 3,000 cups of fresh coffee every week. The pharmacy also provides a good selection of newspapers and magazines, greeting cards, health and beauty aids and fast and extensive photographic services.

One section allowing for the underground storage of fuel oil, gasoline, other petroleum products and hazardous waste came under discussion and the line "hazardous waste chemicals" was deleted. Selectman James Huntoon stated that he thought that hazardous waste chemicals did not belong in the protection area under any conditions. He said that the very purpose of the district was to eliminate that kind of thing.

Permitted in the district, in addition to residences, would be agricultural horticultural, floracultural, vitacultural and forestry. Prohibited, within 200 feet of the Mattapoisett River and its tributaries, would be any building not connected to an approved municipal sewer system, any parking areas, any use that could produce a contaminant that could contaminate ground water. At present most of the area is zoned rural residential and under grandfather clause and special permit granted by the Board of Appeals use may proceed subject to conditions on safeguards to protect the water supply and requirements to prevent or correct conditions detrimental to the water supply, health safety and welfare.

It is planned to have a preliminary meeting on February 1st to discuss both this River Valley Protection District and the High Tech District. A public meeting is planned for February 15th and a Planning Board Heaing would be scheduled for March 29th.

JURORS DRAWN

Drawn for jury duty at the Criminal/Civil Session at Brockton starting February 7, 1983 were: Giles H. Dunn, 84 Angelica Avenue; Clarence G. Verdi, 2 Ocean Drive; and William G. Cook, 33 Prospect Road.

TREE THANKS

Selectmen will write a letter of thanks to the anonymous donor of the town Christmas tree at Shipyard Park.

GRANGE HALL

Selectmen will have the Grange Hall appraised by a professional appraiser, Owen Heleen, to establish a value to offer the property for sale. Selectman Huntoon said that the registration as an historic place offers very attractive tax incentives to a prospective buyer.

Walter Apperson Dies

Word of the death of Walter Apperson on January 3rd in Asheboro, North Carolina started 1983 on a sad note for all local friends. Walter Apperson was 59. Over a 30 year period he contributed in public service to Mattapoisett having served on the Finance Committee and having retired in September from the Board of Assessors after 23 years as a member. He owned and operated the Riverside Sawmill for 25 years until retiring 5 years ago. In both public and private career, Mr. Apperson was available and likeable - a personality that will be missed. His long contribution of time and effort in behalf of the town government was an example of the generous spirit of the man.

He was the husband of Ethel (Tinkham) Apperson and other survivors include a son, Alan of Mattapoisett; a daughter, Ann Hammer of North Carolina; a sister, Janet Otis of North Carolina; and four grandchildren.

A Matter of Course

Editorial, D.C.J.

Selectmen are to be commended on two forward looking programs now in progress. Government, for the most part, has been reactionary. Problems are usually faced after the fact. This is not intended as criticism, especially in town government, which is necessarily run on a part-time basis. However, it is a really heartening thing to see a change in this trend. The most vital local example is the protection of the river valley. We are blessed with a fine pure water supply. The Selectmen have very wisely exhibited a high degree of cooperation with our neighboring towns in sharing this asset. We are now engaged in a similar cooperative effort to protect it. This forward looking policy is also protecting our own local home rule as we exhibit a responsibility toward our own precious resources. The High Tech area designed to attract a very desirable business asset is another major forward looking plan. Instead of reacting to outside forces, our aim now is to steer the town in a desirable direction to benefit the economy and to preserve the character of our life.

There are other smaller but important steps to foresee the future. The Selectmen are sitting in on the final budget process of the school system and the result may well be a more economical utilization of our limited resources. All town government is running a tighter ship thanks to Proposition 2 1/2 restraints which for the first time put a definite limit on the money available to spend. This has led not to the disaster which was forecast by opponents. It did lead to some prudent pruning and planning to use the available funds more efficiently. Efficiency demands forethought. The fallout is economy.

It is a heartening development that government is at present functioning not only within limits but with future planning. I believe that Proposition 2 1/2 might be classed as a catalyst which diverted government from reactionary to planned objective. If this is a true assessment, it is the most important legislation of modern history. We now have navigators plotting position and course and a firm hand at the helm.

Mr. Patch entered Princeton Theological Seminary in September 1971; and in June of 1975 received his Master of Divinity from Princeton and Master of Social Work from Rutgers University. He spent the next two years working full-time as a researcher, bill drafter and analyst for a non-partisan agency of the New Jersey legislature, and at the same time also served as a part-time minister of the Hungarian Reformed Church in Roebling, New Jersey.

In August 1977 the Patch family moved to River Grove, Illinois where for the next three years the Reverend Patch served as pastor of Grace United Church of Christ as well as chaplain to the local fire department.

Three years later the Reverend Patch was called to the Pacific Union Congregational Church in Westport, where he is serving now. While in Westport he has donated his time to the Pastoral Care and Counseling Center of the Greater New Bedford Interchurch Council.

The Patch family enjoys a variety of outdoor activities. Dorothy taught art before the children were born and is now doing substitute teaching. When she can find the time she paints. Raymond enjoys writing, music and sports.

The church has been without a minister since the retirement and resignation of the Reverend Donald Finley last May.

Serving as interim minister has been the Reverend Arlan Baillie.

Ski Film Jan. 13 & 14

TABOR TO OFFER BARRYMORE SKI FILM

The Tabor Academy Ski Club will present a two-hour film by the famed outdoor photographer, John Barrymore, on Thursday and Friday, January 13th and 14th, in Lyndon South Auditorium. VAGABOND SKIERS follows skiers around the world from France to New Zealand where Barrymore and crew found perfect powder. Also featured are Sun Valley's hottest breed of new skiers, the Pro Downhill where speeds exceed 60 M.P.H.; the winter's most exciting freestyle aerial contest at Tignes, France where competitors performed double twisting double back flips and triple back somersaults; beginners in Scotland where they had their best ski season in a hundred; beautiful and talented girl skiers in Vail; wind-surfing in Hawaii; plus powder skiing by helicopter in Nevada's Ruby Mountains and Canada's Caribou Range.

There will be two shows, one on Thursday and one on Friday, both starting at 7:30 p.m., to accommodate all the skiing enthusiasts in the area. The public is cordially invited; there will be a small admission

ROUTE 6 LINING OR RELINING

I am not an engineer (not even a sanitary engineer) and I think my views of the present lining on Route six is in the minority but since I always favored the underdog I think their views should be heard. Do you?

Please read on if you do.

One, I don't think the conditions of the road causes the accidents. It's the nut behind the wheel, it needs adjusting once in a while. When you adjust your front end of your car for camber, caster toe in, etc., also adjust the nut behind the wheel for courtesy, obedience to the rules of the road, patience and many other virtues, and by all means don't lubricate the nut behind the wheel with alcohol or controlled substance for then they blame it on the conditions of the road.

If the foregoing adjustments cannot be accomplished, then I agree we should return to the past and then the majority (not me) can not blame the lining of the road for the fatalities.

Officer Mr. Ennis, I think that at the intersections, I suggest right lane, right turn and straight ahead only; left lane, left turn only. At the start and at each end of this controversial single lane highway, overhead blinking sign, indicating so but no signs will help unless we possess the foregoing virtues.

One year from now the engineers will submit their analysis. I hope they don't forget that we had a lunar eclipse this year.

of more than 50,000 sail and power boat enthusiasts, joined together in 451 local Squadrons. USPS objectives include encouragement of a high standard of skill in the handling and navigation of yachts and promotion of the study of seamanship, navigation, and boat handling. To further these objectives, USPS has developed a wide range of courses in navigational and boating subjects for its members, and offers the Boating Course to any interested members of the public as a civic service.

The USPS Boating Course is offered annually by most of the 451 Squadrons. Mattapoisett Power Squadron has presented the course at least once every educational season since it became a unit of USPS in 1952. The course is under the direction of the Squadron's Local Board for Boating, presently chaired by Paul Cronan of Mattapoisett.

Anyone desiring any further information about the Boating Course can call Paul Cronan at 758-2410, Walter Sawyer at 758-2769, Ed Konetchy at 295-3646, or John Balonis at 947-0202.

CHILDREN PRESENT PLAY

Two days before Christmas, children in Ruth Bates' first grade class presented a play, "The Snowman Who Played Santa", to students at Center School. The play, under the direction of Jean Conlon, Project Life, was an enjoyable way for the children to begin their Christmas holiday. Danny McCarthy announced the players: Amy Rose, Sara Garde, Kiah Tinkham and Heather Stroud, who did an excellent job of acting. Special thanks go to Becky Tinkham, Old Rochester Regional High School art teacher, for making all the costumes. The play may be seen Wednesday, January 12th, at 6:15 or Thursday, January 13th, at 6:30 on Bay 8.

Story of the Sand Dollar

TO THE EDITOR

Since my wreath made of sand dollars won first prize in the natural category of Lions' Club Door Decorations, I thought you might be interested in the story behind the Sand Dollars.

Dick and I dove to retrieve the sand dollars last winter on Tiger Tail Beach on Marco Island, Florida. From then on we put them through many processes: bleaching, drying in the sun, hardening, whitening and spraying to prepare for wreath making and decorating. It was a joint and fun venture. But the story of the sand dollar is fascinating and very appropriate for Christmas.

Jane T. Chase

WHAT IS A SAND DOLLAR?

Sand dollars are delicate round limy wafers from one half to over six inches in diameter, covered with a fine dense fur of short soft brown bristles. They belong to the same group as sea urchins and starfish. All of their structures occur in groups of five and arranged in five rays around their center.

Sand dollars are usually found on the lower beaches and shallow sand flats from Maine to Florida, but can also be found on beaches around the world. All we generally see of these disk-shaped animals are their familiar empty shells, washed up on the beaches by storms. However, when you find them alive their shells are covered by short velvety brown spines on which they can glide along and burrow in the sand. These creatures inhabit sand flats and beaches where the tide ebbs quite a distance. Through the furry bristles you can see the five petaled pattern on their upper shell. This star of Lily-shaped tracing is formed by innumerable tiny holes through which the animal can breathe. The small hole in the center of the underside is the mouth which is surrounded by the white tips of five teeth. If you break open an empty shell you can see the entire shape of the teeth which look like five little birds or doves. The shell of the sand dollar is strengthened by supporting pillars which occupy most of the remaining space between the upper and lower shells.

Sand dollars spend most of their time under water with the upper edges of their shells just showing above the sand, gliding along on their velvety spines. They can burrow and move about by means of these tiny movable spines or tube feet which are equipped with tiny suckers. Empty shells that are found strewn on beaches after a storm have lost their tube feet and furry covering which gradually drop of after the animals die.

LEGEND OF SAND DOLLAR

There is a legend of the sand dollar which is: The five slits on the edge represent the five wounds in the body of Christ. There is an Easter Lily design in the center of the top, with a five pointed star in its center, Star of Bethlehem. On the back is an outline of the Poinsettia, the Christmas flower. When the shell is broken open five small but perfect replicas of a dove will be found, Doves of Peace.

Harlow and LeBaron's Store

MATTAPOISETT HISTORICAL SOCIETY NOTES

It was asked awhile back the location of the Harlow and LeBaron General Store which had been remembered by Judge John Hammond in the mid-1800's as a very educational place for a young boy.

Mary Sherman felt it was one of the stores on Water Street as she remembered as a child going to a store where the Harlow and LeBaron sign was propped in a corner.... a memento of days gone by. However, since Romeo's was built after 1860 and was a drug store and Dr. Sparrow's office for many years it seemed more likely that Harlow and LeBaron's was located where "Pure and Simple" is today...utilizing the whole building.

Mrs. Mildred LeBaron (Mrs. Lemuel) who now lives at Water and Cannon Streets verified this. She said it was her husband's great-grandfather who was the LeBaron of Harlow and LeBaron. Years later she and her husband had the opportunity to buy the building and she ran her Variety Store and Luncheonette there for 33 years, giving it up in the late 1950's. The upper floor of the building was used as a meeting hall for the Machacam Club for most of those years.

When she and her husband took over the building they found old molasses barrels and other oddities as well as weeds growing in the basement. It had been untouched for many, many years. They thought this interesting and called the newspaper about it, but they didn't think it newsworthy. Somehow times have changed and maybe they'd do a story on it today.

Mrs. LeBaron also reminisced about her grandfather who was a strict Adventist minister...no work on Sundays, no frivolity and one attended church. This particular Sunday, with the deacons invited for dinner as usual, strawberries were served for dessert. The Reverend mentioned they were fresh picked that morning. Well, the Deacons were delighted to hear this and prodded him about picking strawberries on Sunday... but his answer was, "Since the Lord saw fit to ripen them on Sunday I had to pick them on Sunday".

flash powder was lit with a match. Other experiments were performed illustrating the fact that things burn well with the proper combination of fuel, oxygen and heat.

In addition to seeing the chemistry demonstration, students viewed a man-made lightning storm, displaying a million volts of electricity at the Theatre of Electricity. After discussing the causes of electrical storms, the instructor dispelled some of the myths about lightning as well as the precautions that should be taken during a storm.

students. The program will consist of two separate components. Victor Lindblum, Director of Financial Aid at Massachusetts Maritime Academy, will address parents of seniors on the financial aid application process. Because of the complex nature of the financial aid process, it is important for parents to have questions answered accurately and thoroughly. There have been important changes in the financial aid form and process this year, and Mr. Lindblum can point out these changes.

Financial aid forms are now available in the Guidance Office. Seniors or parents can pick them up and begin working on them and bring questions to Mr. Lindblum on the 19th. This program will be held in the Old Rochester Regional High School cafeteria.

In addition, a program for parents of college-bound underclassmen will be held in the Old Rochester Regional High School auditorium. Sherman Rosser, Assistant Director of Admissions at Boston College, will discuss the college search and application process, emphasizing when and how to begin. This process needs to be done on a timely basis. It will be beneficial for parents to familiarize themselves with the process. Pre-planning is a very important part of the college application process and should be done early. Mr. Rosser will answer questions on the entire process relative to any college or university. From 7:00 p.m. throughout the evening, the Old Rochester Professional Educators' Association will serve coffee and a variety of desserts. Donations to the Educators' Scholarship Fund will be gratefully accepted. Last year $2,000 in awards were given to Old Rochester graduates.

The Old Rochester Regional High School Art Department will have student work on display this evening also.

Parents of high school students in grades nine through twelve are strongly encouraged to attend. Early planning can eliminate later problems.

Department of Pediatrics of Tobey Hospital, has been elected as the incoming president of the New England Pediatric Society. This society originated in the early 1900's and is one which works for the well-being of infants and children.

Dr. Gleason has been a member of the active staff of Tobey Hospital since 1950. He is married to Dr. Elizabeth H. Gleason, general practitioner, also a member of the active staff at Tobey. They are the parents of five grown children.

Dr. Gleason is very active in pediatric circles and does rounds at Children's Hospital weekly. He has a large practice but manages to get away to visit his children and vacation all over the country and in Europe. He was for many years the Wareham school physician and has always displayed a keen interest in the school system and the children of Wareham as well as of those of the surrounding communities.

"Twenty-One" Tournament

The American Cancer Society and the New Bedford Recreation Department have announced plans to conduct a "Twenty-One" Tournament as part of a state-wide effort to promote basketball and raise funds for the Cancer Society. The contest is open to all area residents from grade 5 through to an open division. There are 5 separate age groups with a male and female division in each group.

Local winners in each group will advance to regional competition. State champions will have their pictures displayed in the basketball hall of fame and be awarded trophies and other awards.

The local competition will be held Saturday, January 22nd, at the Pulaski School. Grades 5-8 will begin competing at 9:00 a.m. and grades 9-12 and open division will compete starting at 11:00 a.m.

A donation to the American Cancer Society in the amount of $3.00 for youngsters in grades 5 through 12 and $4.00 for the open division is required for entrance into the tournament. The entry fee entitles each participant to a "21" tee shirt.

Winter term of classes. Classes offered include: Calligraphy I, International Cooking, Craft Sampler, Pottery, Home Decorating, Sign Language, Slipcovers, Guitar and Basic Sewing; also, Dancercize, Feeling Fit, Yoga, Prenatal Exercise, Tai Chi Self-Defense, and tennis and ballet for adults and children. Also offered for children are Tumbling and Toddler's Gym.

Call the YWCA at 999-3255 for registration information.

Women and Stress

"Women and Stress" will be the theme of the Health Institute Seminar at Bristol Community College on January 29th. Jointly sponsored by the Erna Yaffe Foundation and the Bristol Community College Foundation, the all-day event will take place in BCC's Art Center from 9:15 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Ruth Jacobs, Ph.D., Professor and Chairperson of the Department of Sociology at Clark University in Worcester and Research associate at the Wellesley College Center for Research on Women, will give the keynote address: Women and Stress. Dr. Jacobs, an authority on women, aging, and stress, is the author of "Life After Youth: Female, Forty: What Next?" and the soon to be published "Ten Kinds of Women's Lives".

In addition, Dr. Jacobs has published numerous papers and articles about women, aging and stress.

Dr. Jacobs, a prolific writer and speaker, has addressed the problem of women, aging and stress in countless ways through the years. Her "Life After Youth: Female, Forty: What Next?" was published by Beacon Press in 1979. Antiques Show & Sale Norton's Land Preservation Society will present their eighth annual Antiques Show and Sale at the Norton Middle School on Route 123 on Saturday and Sunday, January 22 and 23. Show hours will be 11 a.m. until 9 p.m. on Saturday and 12 noon until 5 p.m. on Sunday.

Fifty-five exhibitors, selected to show the finest quality eighteenth and early nineteenth century antiques, will come from as far as Maine, Pennsylvania and Virginia. Their booths will be arranged with interesting varieties of formal and country furniture, primitives, pottery, paintings and prints, pattern glass, textiles, tools, toys and dolls, jewelry, clocks, decoys and books.

This year's show will feature a special display of a reproduction of an early eighteenth century miniature Taunton chest handcrafted by Staples Cabinet Makers of Norton. Staples has donated the chest to the Land Preservation Society who are offering chances on it. The name of the winner of the chest will be drawn at 4 p.m. on Sunday at the show.

Members of the Land Preservation Society will again serve their popular menu of homemade meals and snacks. In addition, the Society will have for sale homebaked goods, copies of their own cookbook and packets

HOST FAMILIES SOUGHT FOR INTERNATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Host families are being sought for 25 high school students from Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Finland, Germany, Spain, France, Italy, Colombia, Brazil, Canada, and Japan for the school year 1983-84 in a program sponsored by the American Intercultural Student Exchange (AISE).

The students, age 15 through 17, will arrive in the United States in August 1983, attend the local high school and return to their home country in late June 1984. The students, all fluent in English, have been screened by their school representative in their home countries and have spending money and medical insurance.

Families interested in hosting a Swedish or Spanish student, age 15 through 17, during five week summer stays from the end of June through July 1983 are also being sought. The students in this program will not attend school.

Host Families with small children are welcome to participate in both programs. Host families may deduct $50. per month for Income Tax purposes.

AISE is also seeking American high school students ages 15 through 17 who would like to spend a high school year in Sweden, Norway, Finland, Germany, Spain, or France; or participate in a five week Host Family stay in Sweden, Norway, Finland, Spain or Colombia.

Families interested in this program should contact either Dorothy Tibbets, Rochmond Road, W. Stockbridge, MA. 01266, (413) 232-8541; or Rita O'Brien, 422-6280.

BRIEF HISTORY OF WHALING BARK WANDERER

By William H. Tripp

Whaling Bark Wanderer was the last vessel built at Mattapoisett, Mass.

The Whalemen's Shipping List, published at New Bedford, under date of April 23, 1878, says "Bark Wanderer."

"Launched. The new Bark Wanderer, of 303 tons, burthen was successfully launched from the Shipyard of J.H. Holmes & Son, owned by Messrs. Gifford and Cummings of this City and will be fitted for a whaling voyage to the North and South Atlantic Oceans, to be commanded by Capt. Andrew R. Heyer, late of Bark George & Susan. She is a First Class vessel of beautiful model, and for completeness in every respect reflects credit upon the skill of her builders and the liberality of her owners."

Official number of the bark was 80665, her letters, J. S. V. K. She was 303.28 tons Gross; 288.12 Net; 116.2 feet in length; 27.6 feet in beam; and 15.8 feet in depth.

On June 4, 1878, the Wanderer sailed on her first voyage under command of Captain Andrew R. Heyer. She was bound for the Atlantic Ocean. She returned May 23, 1882 in charge of Captain Layton. Her catch was 2600 barrels of oil.

Her second voyage began August 29, 1882. She was commanded by Captain Thomas J. McLane, and sailed for the North Pacific Ocean. Later, Captain Thuman took over the vessel, and the Wanderer went into San Francisco November 15, 1883 with a cargo of 125 barrels of whale oil.

The agents of the Wanderer on her first voyage were Gifford and Cummings, and later Swift and Allen. When she started her second voyage John P. Knowles, 2nd was her agent and he was succeeded by Josiah N. Knowles.

For the next 18 years after 1883, the home port of the Wanderer was changed to San Francisco, and she made 11 voyages to the North Pacific and Arctic Oceans. These voyages were of one year duration; the whaler sailing in December and returning to San Francisco the following November.

On these Arctic voyages, she was commanded by the following skippers: Thuman, Smith, Winslow, Corrigan, Cleveland, Smith, Macomber, McInnis and Porter.

Her 13th voyage in command of Captain Porter was of four years duration. She sailed March 15, 1894 and the Wanderer returned to San Francisco October 14, 1898. Four winters the vessel had spent frozen in off Herschell Island in the Arctic Ocean. The result of this long voyage was seven whales.
